

For Immediate Release

June 19, 2012

NEWS RELEASE

Elvis dines downtown Windsor

Windsor, ON – Centre for Seniors and the Downtown Windsor Business Improvement Association today announced that Elvis would be dining in downtown Windsor on Thursday June 21 from 11:30pm - 1:30pm. Restaurants participating in the "Eat like a King" promotion are Luna's Trattoria on Pelissier Ave, Mick's Irish Pub on Chatham East, and Villains Beastro on Pelissier, north of University.

Elvis fans are invited to dine in these establishments, celebrate the King's memory, and sit back and enjoy entertaining performances by local Elvis Tribute Artists (ETA) Norm Ackland Junior and Frank Cross.

11:30pm - 12:30pm	Norm Ackland Junior at Mick's Irish Pub Frank Cross at Villians Beastro
12:30pm - 1:30pm	Norm Ackland and Frank Cross at Luna's Trattoria

Bring your camera for a memorable photo opportunity and check out the Kings of Rock, donning Elvis jumpsuits, and the ladies — complete with poodle skirts — swinging to the music.

"The Eat like a King promotion gives us a unique opportunity to promote the upcoming Elvis Fest, celebrate the King's music, and promote the diversity of our downtown dining establishments," says Larry Horwitz, Chair of the Downtown Windsor Business Improvement Association.

The 7th annual Elvis Fest will be held June 22-24 at Roseland Golf Club. Roseland's 13,000 square-foot curling rink will be rockin' with the music of the King of Rock and Roll. Advance tickets are available at Centre for Seniors by calling 519-254-1108 or by emailing info@windsorelvisfest.com

##

For further information

Laurie Smith, Elvis Fest Coordinator, Centre for Seniors
519-254-1108 or ismith@centresforseniors.org