

Lights out for Chanoso's and Oishii Restaurants

For immediate release: March 24, 2010

Windsor, ON - On March 27, 2010 at 8:30 pm, Chanoso's and Oishii Restaurants in downtown Windsor will, for the third consecutive year, power down in support of Earth Hour 2010. Turning off their lights and reducing all electrical power for one full hour, Chanoso's and Oishii are inviting patrons to join the crusade in support of climate action.

Romanticizing the event, Chanoso's and Oishii are offering patrons candlelight dinner and cold menu selections including Corn, Jicama, Asian Pear and Cucumber Salad with Avocado Puree Appetizer; Coconut Pad Thai with Almond Chili Sauce Entrée; and Sweet and Sour Cherry Sorbet with fresh fruit.

"These simple acts will highlight awareness of the fight for climate change" said Mark Boscariol, co-owner of Chanoso and Oishii Restaurants. "We're encouraging involvement and inviting the community to come out in support of our environment."

Earth Hour 2010

On Earth Hour millions of people around the world will come together to call for action on climate change by doing something quite simple—turning off their lights for one hour. The movement symbolizes that by working together, each of us can make a positive impact in this fight, protecting our future and that of future generations. Learn more at
